

Book of Mormon from the English to the German language and was editor of the Millennial Star.

The farm was located up Snake Creek. Soon after, the family moved from Snake Creek to Little Cottonwood where he worked as weighmaster at the stone quarry. The stones were loaded, shipped, and delivered to Salt Lake City for building of the Salt Lake Temple. Two years later Mr. Huber moved to Salt Lake, and later returned to Midway and the farm.

Mr. Huber was a prominent citizen taking part in most community projects of varied interests: He was a Black Hawk War veteran, agent for Wasatch and Jordan Valley railroad, census taker from 1880-1900, member of the school board for 24 years, secretary of the Midway Irrigation Company for 10 years, Justice of the Peace for two years, agent for crop reporting for the U.S. Department of Agriculture, teacher of a class in penmanship. He compiled a history of Midway Ward from 1859 to 1900, and took the school census.

Mr. Huber was an accomplished musician. He composed many poems and set the words to music. He organized a choir, a male chorus, glee club, and furnished music for church, conferences, ward entertainments, and funerals.

He was ward clerk for thirty years from 1878 to 1908 and was known for the almost perfect records he kept.

Mr. Huber built several houses in Midway, some of which are still standing. He and his family—sons, grandsons, and granddaughters—served 43 years in the mission fields.

Mary Magdalena was the third of five children in her family. The family was religiously inclined, claiming membership in the Church of the Reformation.

When Mary was seven her mother died, and she grew up with a step-mother, attending school and learning household duties. At the age of 20 she became intensely interested in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. With a close friend, Amelia Stumpf, she would walk a distance of eight miles to hear the missionaries preach.

Mary was baptized a member of the Church April 15, 1861. In the meantime, her brother Conrad and sister Bertha came to America, and she and her friend Amelia followed in 1863. They traveled by train to Florence, Nebraska, and then came by team the rest of the way to Salt Lake. At Chimney Rock, Mary and Amelia were walking arm in arm during a heavy storm, when lightning struck them. Amelia was killed, and Mary knocked unconscious. She was revived and rode part of the way in a wagon after that.

The company, headed by John Huber, landed in Salt Lake September 24, 1863, and Mary went to Payson where her grandparents Naegeli had settled two years earlier. On October 23 she married John Huber and their first home was a large room where eight other people slept on the floor every night. John worked at a cannery in Payson.

In the spring of 1864 John and Mary moved to Midway, living with Dr. John Gerber and family.

During her husband's missionary service, his work in Salt Lake and all his labors in Midway, Mary stood by as a faithful wife and mother. She was a member of the first Relief Society in Midway, and served as a counselor to Elizabeth Wintch and also to Martha Bronson. She was an officer in the Relief Society for more than 20 years.

Mary maintained her home and farm on Snake Creek, where she died at the age of 93.

JOHN HUBER

John Huber was born November 1, 1840 in Dodtnacht, Switzerland. He died November 16, 1914 in Midway, Utah.

John Huber immigrated to Urah with his mother and step-father. Anna Elizabeth and Hans Martin Naegeli. In 1860 he was called to return to Switzerland to serve as an L.D.S. missionary. After serving 3 years he returned to Utah with a group of saints who had been placed in his charge.

On October 18, 1863, he married Mary Magdalena Munz in Payson, Utah. In 1864 they moved to "Provo Valley" and located in the Upper Settlement or MOUND CITY.

In 1871 he was called to serve another mission to Switzerland. During this time he served as President of the Swiss Mission, helped translate the Book of Mormon from English to the German language, and was editor of the Millennial Star. On his return he brought many immigrants with him and was instrumental in influencing many to settle in the Midway area.

He was an accomplished musician. Soon after coming to Midway he organized a choir and was the choir leader for 40 years. He organized a male chorus and glee club and furnished music for all occasions. He arranged for outstanding musical groups to come to the valley: The Boshard Brothers and Pine Brothers, two well-known quartets, often came to the Huber Grove, and around a large bonfire, would entertain Midway residents for many hours. He wrote many hymns and musical compositions both in English and German. Many of his hymns are still used in German Hymn books.

John Huber used his versatile talents in service to the community. Besides being a talented musician he was an efficient record keeper. He was ward clerk from 1878 to 1908. He compiled a history of Midway Ward from 1859 to 1900. He was a Black Hawk War veteran, agent for Wasatch and Jordan railroad and taught a class in penmanship.

He helped operate one of the first saw mills west of Provo River.

He planted an orchard of fruit trees and raised and shipped the first carload of apples from Wasatch County. He spent much time grafting fruit trees. Some of the trees he planted are still bearing fruit. His wedding gift to newlyweds was often a fruit tree.

Children of John and Mary Huber are: John Martin Huber, Henry Albert, Mary Magdalena, Emma Elizabeth, Elisa Otilla, Matilda, Nephi Huber, Joseph Emanuel and Ida.
